

Prof. Tae Rim Lee

Dr. Tae Rim Lee is the ex-director of KNOU e-Learning center. She was a program organizer of the ASEM e-Learning ICT Colloquy Sept. 2006 with 27 countries at Seoul and this e-ASEM Network follow up meeting.

She works 27 years in the fields of Life Long Learning at Korea National Open University. From 23 years ago she developed the computer base teaching instruction starting from Apple computer Mac, PC, and now web version. She is a biostatistician and now president of Korean Society of Public Health Statistics and president of Korean Classification Society and representative of Asia Pacific area woman statistician of ISI . During her term of director at KNOU e-Learning center, she took charge of the president of KUACE(Korea Alliance for Cyber Education) with nationwide 89 universities.

Her contents of Introductory Statistics was open to the APEC Cyber University for Public Health and ongoing collaboration with UNSIAP(UN Statistical Institute for Asia Pacific) of online education for Asia Pacific official statisticians. She published many books and e-Learning contents of statistics, Statistics and Life, Introductory Statistics, Exploratory Data Analysis, Statistical Analysis, Data Analysis for Life data and Data Mining.

mail : trlee@knou.ac.kr

Degree : Ph.D. in Biostatistics

Academic : B.A., 1977 Seoul National University NURSING
Background MPH., 1979 Seoul National University BIOSTATISTICS
B.A., 1981 Seoul National University STATISTICS
M.S., 1983 Seoul National University STATISTICS
Ph.D., 1989 Joongang University STATISTICS
Post Dr., 1990 University of North Carolina BIOSTATISTICS
Visiting scholar Ph.D., 1989. university of Wisconsin, Medical Informatics & Biostatistics

Related Professional Activities

- President, Korean Biometric Society 2003-2007
- Vice President, Korean Public Health Information Statistics Society 2004-2008
- President, Korean Public Health Information Statistics Society 2009-2011
- President, Korean Classification Section of KSS 2008-2010
- Council member, International Federation of Classification Society 2000-now
- Director of Public Relation, Korean Statistical Society 2005-2007
- Committee member, deliberation of Agricultural Information and Statistics in the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry 2001-now
- Committee member, deliberation of Rural development Administration

Coordinator of ASEM e-Learning Network 2004-2007

ASEM Education Hub Advisory Member 2006-2009

President of Korean University Alliance for Cyber Education 2005 - 2006